Assistant Commissioner of Patents & Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231REQUEST FOR WITHDRAWAL OF FINALITY OF REJECTION

Dear Sir:

The Final Rejection in the above-captioned application mailed December 6, 2002 reopened prosecution in response to Applicant's Appeal Brief, citing new grounds of rejection (over Carroll '213 and a double-patenting rejection). This Final Rejection was purportedly made final because "Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection." However, there was no amendment after the previous final rejection (prior to the appeal) and no amendment that could have "necessitated the new grounds of rejection." Since there was no amendment, and since the office action reopening prosecution contains two new grounds of rejection, this office action should be non-final. Therefore, Applicant requests the Examiner to withdraw the finality of the rejection mailed December 6, 2002.

Applicant has attempted to contact the Examiner. The Examiner returned Applicant's call with a voicemail indicating that the file was unavailable to him at the time. Hopefully, the Examiner can obtain the file now and withdraw the finality of the rejection before the two-month date, which is February 6, 2003.

Respectfully submitted,
